Conference

We held our annual Voter Voices conference back in November on the topic of “Building Trust in an Age of Misinformation”. It was a great success! Heartfelt thanks to all the speakers and contributors.

Group Delivery Highlights

In 2026, we have worked with new groups - TY groups (age 16) in Dublin 1 and a project that supports mothers in direct provision from all over Dublin. All were very engaged in finding out more about elections and voting.

Who Represents You?

Do you know who your politicians are? There is a fantastic website constituent.ie to find who your local representatives are. Put in your address/eircode to find your councillors, TDs, Senators and MEPS.

Lunch for Democracy

A very inspiring project in the UK called Lunch for Democracy aims to encourage civic learning about democracy, media and citizenship, in schools and universities around the world.

Find our more at www.wonderfuture.com.

Dates for Diary

National Voter Registration Day

Once again, National Voter Registration Day is happening on 30th April.

It is a chance to make sure you are registered to vote and check your details. For more info, email: info@nationalvoterregistrationday.ie

DALC Course in March!

In advance of the bye-election set for May, we are delivering our Active Citizenship Voter Education Course.

The course is March, 12th, 19th and 26th, 9.30-2.30pm. Please email vote@dalc.ie if you know tutors, students and anyone in the community who might like to come along.

Community of Practice

Is the topic of voting and politics coming up in your classroom or in your work?

Please come along to our community of practice for some support, ideas, facilitation strategies and just to connect. It is online on Wednesday 25th March at 1pm. Please email vote@dalc.ie and votedalc@gmail.com for the link

If you have any events you would like to share through our network, or any stories on voting for our blog, please let us know on vote@dalc.ie and votedalc@gmail.com
