

Voter Voices Issue 12

Newsletter November 2026

Email: vote@dalc.ie

News & Updates

Empower

In September we delivered our train the trainer Active Citizenship Voter Education course with Empower. They are a social inclusion project based in Blanchardstown.

Donegal with Inisihowen Development Partnership

DALC made it up to beautiful Buncrana in Donegal to work with a group of tutors and community leaders to deliver our training, co-facilitated with Julie Griffiths.

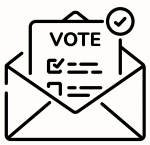

Longford Women's Link

DALC visited Longford in Oct to hear about the Building Bridges project - research presented by Maynooth University and SHE (See Her Elected) on how we can increase poltical engagement with young people.

Postal Voting

Staff and students in DALC were delighted to give views on postal voting on 17th June for research with International IDEA and An Coimisiún Toghcháin/The Electoral Commission.

Dates for Diary

Conference

Our next Voter Voices conference is on Friday 20th Nov this year! The theme is Strengthening Democracy. Email vote@dalc.ie to sign up.

NALA webinar

DALC's Sinéad Hawkins is delivering a webinar with NALA entitled 'Voter Education: Getting the Conversation Started" at 1pm on Tuesday 3rd Nov next. Go to nala.ie to sign up.

New Resource

Check out our new book Why Vote? This is a great resource to show the importance of asking good questions.

BOOK CREATOR

Why Vote?
DALC

Connecting & Collaborating!

Visit vote.ie/resources for all our resources. Get in touch on vote@dalc.ie for any questions.